Morning Anna,

Unfortunately April 25 is a local holiday and the embassy will be closed. April 27-28 our office is engaged with other visits. We could try for April 24 at 4:00pm Rome (10:00 DC) if that helps?

I will send around another note for a tentative call while Mark is here on April 18 at 4:00pm Rome (10:00 DC). Would that work? April 19 our office is hosting a film screening for Earth Day.

, many thanks for your help with confirming these calls.

Would it be possible to change the April 26th call to April 25th at the same time? Some of the EPA team has a conflict that will prevent our participation on April 26th.

If possible, we also would suggest scheduling a placeholder call for the week that Mark is in Rome for the scoping visit just in case it is needed. We would consider this lower priority than any scoping-related appointments that you will be scheduling. And, of course, we could cancel it if it turns out to conflict with the scoping schedule or if there are no pending issues to discuss. If feasible, perhaps starting at 4:00 instead of 3:00 Rome time that week could help to avoid potential schedule conflicts but we would defer to Embassy Rome's judgement on that.

Many thanks again for all of your help!

Best,
Anna
